

Daniel Moerner

---

Curriculum Vitae

Education

- 2014–2019 PhD in Philosophy, Yale University.
- 2013–2014 MPhil in Classics, Downing College, University of Cambridge.
- 2009–2013 BA in Philosophy and Classics, Pomona College, GPA – 3.99.
Summa cum laude; Phi Beta Kappa

Experience

Employment

- 2019–Present Assistant Professor, UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO.
Tenure-track Professor of Philosophy. Detailed achievements and skills:
- Youngest faculty member to lead a seminar at the University of Chicago Graham School, an adult extension program. Led a seminar on "Digital Ethics", with a focus on AI, for leaders in a variety of fields, including AI programming, marketing, and law.
  - Founding member of U Chicago committee developing a career-oriented Minor in Ethics.
  - Research and teaching experience in digital ethics and philosophy of technology, with a special focus on privacy, intellectual property, and AI, including LLMs.
  - Research and teaching experience in advanced topics in logic, theory of knowledge, ethics, and political philosophy.
  - Extensive experience in public speaking and professional writing, including publications with Cambridge University Press, numerous public lectures and panel discussions, and public interviews about philosophy and politics.

Volunteering

- 2021–Present Fedora Packager, Fedora Linux.
Packaged or co-maintained a variety of RPM packages, from interpreters to citation tools. Actively working on packaging new tools, with a focus on Python and Haskell packages.
- 2008–2010 Debian Maintainer, Debian GNU/Linux.
Maintained a wide variety of Debian packages, from interpreters to window managers.

Computer & Language Skills

- Advanced PYTHON, Debian and RPM Packaging
- Intermediate JAVASCRIPT, R, HTML, L<sup>A</sup>T<sub>E</sub>X, Vim, Git, Linux, Microsoft Office (including Excel)
- Basic PHP, SQL, HASKELL
- Written French, Spanish, Ancient Greek, Latin
- Language